Customer Reviews
I'm quite new to the world of wine, don't want to feel always puzzled, it's really fascinating to recognize the taste and value of the wine quality. The book is a nice guide into wine learning, it's easy to read and comprehend, it has everything we need to know about wine, basic and essential facts and features are a must. Special chapter is about pairing wine and food, definitely I'll follow those rules in the future. The book is worth reading if you want to recognize more than just color or taste of wine.
