Customer Reviews

I love cooking with a cast iron skillet so when I saw this cookbook, I grabbed it. It contains wonderful, delicious recipes. So far, I've made the Spinach Stuffed Sundried Tomato Chicken, Dijon and Wine Roasted Chicken, the Creamy Basil Flank Steak and the Cajun Shrimp Alfredo and they were all delicious. I can't wait to try the Lemony Wild Mushroom and Broccoli Pasta and the Cider Baked Pork and Apples. I also liked learning the best way to clean and preserve cast iron skillets. You simply have to get this cookbook!

Cast iron cooking is rich in history. But, I have never tried cast iron cooking style or lifestyle. This book is a great help in understanding cast iron cooking style. This book contains very useful cast iron cooking tricks that will help make your one skillet cooking even easier, and reducing the time you spend in the kitchen. Entire meals can be prepared in just one skillet that can be used on the stove top, in the oven and in some cases even both. Great idea indeed!

If you are new to cooking with cast iron then this is a great place to start. I have been using my set of cast iron cookware that I have collected over many years and think it is the best!

Louise does a great job. Always keep her books in my library.

Timeless recipes seemed to be very new. I was looking for my grandmother's meals. Format would not let me jump around easily. Some good info on use and care.
