Miss Mingo And The Fire Drill

Synopsis

"Children will love the story for its charm and rollicking fun, and the salient points will make a lasting impression. A top choice for Fire Prevention Week." — School Library Journal
Stop! Drop! Roll! Learning the rules of fire safety is a lot more fun (and less scary) when demonstrated by a charming and diverse group of animals. Alligator, Panda, Octopus, and the others work hard to master the rules of fire safety and perform the perfect fire drill, but thinking about fire is a bit nerve-wracking, and each of them reacts differently — often with hilarious results. Sprinkled with fascinating facts about animal behavior, this second story about the characters in Miss Mingo's one-of-a-kind class is sure to appeal to readers of all stripes.

Customer Reviews

I had to start summarizing this book for my kindergarten class because it was way too long and wordy. I was getting them ready for our first fire drill, but many of them were losing interest because of the length. Definitely read this through before reading it to your class.

We bought this because my son was having some anxiety concerning fire drills at school. After reading through this book with him, he feels much more confident and prepared!

A friend of mine is as much a flamingo lover, as I, I sent this for her granddaughters, she says they enjoy this book. Another generation of flamingo lovers in the making

An old favorite for kindergarten kids. My daughters class were doing a class on fire department and this was just the right book.
