The instructions in this book are straight- forward and fairly simple. I love her combinations of essential oils. They are very unusual. The " Mother Earth" Hippie Bath Bombs are the ones I can't wait to try. Others that sound interesting are the " Freshly Mown" Lemongrass and the Evergreen Floral Dream Bath Bombs.

I just got into making bath bombs at home. This book is great for having some recipe ideas for blends of scents. I do notice that the author is measuring essential oils by the teaspoon for these recipes. They only make 4-6 bombs though, and that is a LOT of oil for that small of a recipe. Others I see call for 8-10 drops of essential oil. I think she may be mixing up essential oils and fragrance oils, which are quite different in strength. I think anyone beginning in making bath bombs can find some good ideas in this book.

An easy to understand diy guide for making "bath bombs"! I've been interested in beauty dig since my son's gf began giving me such things as gifts. Now I'm inspired! After these BB's I'll be onto makin' my own organic soaps, scrubs&lotions! Not to mention Hair Care! Maybe I'll get off a bit cheaper for the ladies on my Christmas list this year, but the love&personalization more than makes up for that. Try all this with me! It looks SO fun!:)

What a great book! There are over 40 recipes to choose from and they were all wonderful. I love aromatherapy and using the scents would be great. I agree, I would prefer to know what is in my bath products and here is a way to do it. You could also use this book to make gifts for other people.

Glad I purchased it.

Bought this as part of an anniversary present, Wife loves the "recipes", I skimmed through and was expecting quite a bit more for $8.00 Pictures of the bombs or even colored pictures of the chapter pages would have gone a long way. Felt like I was reading a kindle version of a book. I was a bit surprised there weren't any descriptions of the bombs either, Just the Title+ Ingredients + Directions for all 40 bath bombs. Overall, I feel like I overpaid, (especially since I expedited the order to be in time for our anniversary) should have just bought the digital version for $1.00, You lose nothing buying the digital copy.

I have never heard 'Bath Bombs' before. I love the idea of making them, especially with my daughter. This will be fun to try for the summer and for Christmas gifts.

This book is a great resource for starting out making bath bombs. It has a lot of great recipes and helped me start creating my own.

Love this book. Good recipes. Easy to follow. Bath bombs are wonderful and the recipes I have tried have been great!
