The Gator Queen Liz Cookbook

Synopsis

What do you do with a gator after you catch it? Elizabeth Choate, from the History Channel's popular "Swamp People," has a few delicious ideas. And if you're not the adventurous type (think nutria, not to mention other types of swamp game of Louisiana), you'll love her takes on venison, duck and Cajun classics like shrimp, jambalaya, crawfish and gumbo, as well as downhome staples like fried pork chops, potato salad and 7-Up cake. With 100 recipes, the Queen has something for all her fans. ELIZABETH CHOATE hunts alligators in "Swamp People," which airs on The History Channel. She lives in Pecan Island, Louisiana.

While I doubt, I will try many of the recipes in this book (I am a Vegan) I love Swamp People and I collect cookbooks and I really like Liz and her Family..So that being said, the recipes look easy, the pictures are great, and I am sure folks will find plenty of tasty dishes to prepare.

I love this family and I love this book! It's definitely the best looking cookbook in my collection and I love the photos and recipes. Recipes appear easy and delicious. Not a big bulky book. Easy to tote around with you. A unique book. I'm VERY happy I bought it ^

Great seasoning, spicy but not hot. I have used it as a meat rub. Added it to chicken fried steaks. Added it to chili, soups casseroles. I find it is great no matter what I have added it to. Works well with beef, pork and chicken. I went to the river but could not find any gators in Washington state :).
