Classic Schwinn Bicycles (Collector's Library)

Synopsis

Here is an illustrated guide to Classic Schwinn Bicycles from 1895 to present. Detailed text and 250 B&W photographs depict the most classic Schwinn models including pre-World War II Aerocycles, Motorbikes (Cycleplanes), and Autocycles; post-war Panthers and Phantoms; '50s and '60s middleweights; '60s Sting Rays and Krates; and every other Schwinn. Special models including the Whizzer and Cycle Truck are featured, as well as the contemporary classic reproductions. There is even a chapter for the up-and-coming lightweights. Star ratings are used to stratify each model's classic status. You will also find information on serial numbers and identification methods. This book offers an historical perspective of the entire spectrum of classic Schwinn bicycle lineage.

Customer Reviews

Classic Schwinn Bicycles-Collector's Library pictures real bicycles that exist today; not factory archive shots. The photos are mainly of bikes currently in the hands of collectors. The detailed text is derived from my long time Schwinn affliction, collector interviews, countless dealer catalogs (sales and service), advertisements, periodicals, and books; actually the books were countable, as there are only a few published on the subject. This book will help you identify models and years, and their current collector status. The information is great, and so are the photos of these nifty old bikes!
